

Sponsorship

Terms and Conditions

The National Student Television Association (here on in referred to as NaSTA) reserves the right to refuse distribution of any material we believe to be unsuitable. If you are unsure about your promotion or material then please submit it (in full – including any supporting material) to the NaSTA Executive for checking beforehand.

If you have not checked your promotion or material with the NaSTA Executive & it is deemed as being unsuitable for distribution no refund will be given.

Adverts and Advertising

NaSTA reserves the right to refuse unsuitable copy/artwork.

Advertisers will receive a free copy if requested.

It is the advertisers' responsibility that their product/brand/ service or company is not in breach of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 or any other subsequent act. Furthermore it is their responsibility that the information contained in the promotion is accurate and complies with the law. NaSTA will not accept any responsibility for misleading or inaccurate information supplied.

Where appropriate, proofs will be supplied.

Corrections and/or changes must be confirmed in writing.

NaSTA will not accept any responsibility for loss or damage resulting from error, late publication or non publication or failure of any course. (A refund may be possible depending on the circumstances but not guaranteed).

Artwork or material must be supplied to NaSTA by the date required.

Payment-All methods of payment will be outlined by the NaSTA Executive on the submission of enquiries

All cancellations must be made in writing to the NaSTA Marketing Officer. Reasons need not be given.

Artwork-If you are supplying finished artwork please supply in the following format: JPEG, TIFF, PDF, (EPS for clothing), (GIF for web).

Signatory-Where the signatory does not have the authority to make payment and signs the booking form then NaSTA reserve the right to pursue the signatory themselves for outstanding monies.

The Law- It is your responsibility to fully read the terms and conditions.

Please contact marketing@nasta.tv if you have any queries.