Clause 1 Name

1. Name and Identities
 - 1.1. The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation (“the CIO”) is “The National Student Television Association”.
 - 1.2. The acronym “NaSTA” may be used to identify the CIO. It should be noted that this acronym is case sensitive.

Clause 2 National location of principal office

1. Location of principal office
 - 1.1. The location of the principal office is in England.

Clause 3 Object[s]

1. The objects of the CIO are:
 - 1.1. To provide help and support to student television stations and individuals who are members of those stations.
 - 1.2. To promote the interests of student television stations.
 - 1.3. To provide a recognised and representative channel of communication between NaSTA’s affiliates and other third party organisations.
 - 1.4. Enhancing, promoting and supporting social, cultural, intellectual and educational activity amongst its affiliates and their members.
 - 1.5. Bringing together stations for conferences, award ceremonies and other gatherings.
 - 1.6. Encourage student leadership throughout the organisation and its affiliated stations.
 - 1.7. Ensure all matters are handled in a transparent and democratic manner in accordance with the laws this constitution provides for.
2. Who can benefit
 - 2.1. A club, society or section of a students’ union that is recognised as a student television station.
 - 2.2. A club, society or group that is made up of students from the same university.
 - 2.3. An individual involved with a student TV station who is a member of one of the above clubs, societies or groups.
 - 2.4. An individual involved with a student TV station who is a student at a university.
3. Geographical limits
 - 3.1. Stations that are within the borders of Scotland, England, Wales, Northern Ireland and Eire, as well as the British Overseas Territories, Crown Dependencies, Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands.
4. Charitable statement
 - 4.1. Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

- 4.2. NaSTA ensures that no affiliate of the CIO shall ever harass or discriminate against, or be subject to harassment or discrimination, on the grounds of their age, beliefs, physical status, race, sex, sexual orientation or any other characteristic, physical, mental or otherwise.

Clause 4 Powers

1. The CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its object[s] or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the CIO's powers include power to:
 - 1.1. Receive contribution through annual affiliation fees;
 - 1.2. Elect and appoint unpaid officers;
 - 1.3. Work in partnership with other organisations;
 - 1.4. Employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to so by clause 6 and provided it complies with the conditions of those sections.
 - 1.5. Buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
 - 1.6. Sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the CIO. In exercising this power, the CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;
 - 1.7. Borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
 - 1.8. Carry out anything else within the relevant laws of the United Kingdom and/or the Republic of Ireland necessary to undertake NaSTA's aims and objective;

2. Neither NaSTA Officers nor General Meetings (including the Annual General Meeting) nor the Trustees hold the power to affiliate the National Student Television Association as an affiliate of any other external organisation (such as the National Union of Students) without previously holding a referendum of all affiliates, a majority of which must vote in favour of affiliation.
 - 2.1. The trustees reserve the right to disaffiliate from any organisation.

Clause 5 Application of income and property

1. The income and property of the CIO must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - 1.1. A charity trustee or officer is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the CIO or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by them when acting on behalf of the CIO.
 - 1.1.1. How trustees and officers can be paid expenses is outlined in the "NaSTA Expenses Policy" documentation.
 - 1.2. A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the CIO's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

2. None of the income or property of the CIO may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any affiliate of the CIO. This does not prevent an affiliate who is not also a charity trustee or officer receiving.
 - 2.1. A benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO.
 - 2.2. Reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the CIO.
3. Nothing in this section shall prevent a charity trustee, officer or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Section 6.

Clause 6 Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

1. General provisions - no charity trustee, officer or connected person may:
 - 1.1. Buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to affiliates of the public;
 - 1.2. Sell goods, services or any interest in land to the CIO;
 - 1.3. Be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO;
 - 1.4. Receive any other financial benefit from the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-section 2 of this section, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this section, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has monetary value.
2. Scope and powers permitting trustees’, officers’ or connected persons’ benefits
 - 2.1. A charity trustee, officer or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary provided that it is available to the beneficiaries of the CIO.
 - 2.2. A charity trustee, officer or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of service, to the CIO where that is permitted with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011
 - 2.3. Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee, officer or connected person may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee, officer or connected person.
 - 2.4. A charity trustee, officer or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee, officer or connected person to the CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
 - 2.5. A charity trustee, officer or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.
3. Payment for supply of goods only - controls: The CIO and its charity trustees and officers may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2.3) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied
 - 3.1. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the CIO and the charity trustee, officer or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).

- 3.2. The amount of maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- 3.3. The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interest of the CIO to contract with the supplier rather than someone who is not a charity trustee, officer or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustee must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantage of doing so.
- 3.4. The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with them or it with regard to the supply of goods to the CIO.
- 3.5. The supplier does not vote on an such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- 3.6. The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minutes.
- 3.7. A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.
4. In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:
 - 4.1. "The CIO" includes any company in which the CIO:
 - 4.1.1. Holds more than 50% of the shares or
 - 4.1.2. Controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - 4.1.3. Has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;
 - 4.2. "Connected person" includes any person within the definition set out in clause [30] (Interpretation);
5. This clause is in conjunction with the accompanying document "NaSTA Expenses Policy", which details what expenses can or cannot be claimed and by whom.

Clause 7 Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

1. A charity trustee or officer must:
 - 1.1. declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which they has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the CIO or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the CIO which has not previously been declared; and
 - 1.2. absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees or officers in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).
2. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty include but are not limited to:
 - 2.1. Association to a particular station by affiliation, either past or present.
 - 2.2. The receiving of money or other items of value of favours with the intent of pushing a decision a certain way.
 - 2.3. Association to another body that NaSTA may engage with.
 - 2.4. Any other association or interests that may influence an action.
3. Any charity trustee or officer absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

Clause 8 Liability of affiliates to contribute to assets if it is wound up

1. If the CIO is wound up, the affiliates of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

Clause 9 NaSTA affiliation

1. Definition of an affiliate
 - 1.1. an affiliate of NaSTA is defined as a group of students from the same university that have an interest in television and video making, and furthering the aims of the CIO. They can be a club, society, section or independent group not part of a students' union or university department.
 - 1.2. an affiliate will be seen by NaSTA as a Student Television Station.
2. Admission of new affiliates
 - 2.1. The only kind of eligible affiliate is a Student Television Station.
 - 2.2. A station wishing to become an affiliate must pay the affiliation fee subject to sub-clause 8.2.
 - 2.3. A newly affiliated station gives the Association non-exclusive rights to use the station's logo on the Association's website.
 - 2.4. The NaSTA executive or charity trustees may refuse an application for affiliateship if it is in the best interests of the CIO. The station will have their affiliation fee be reimbursed within 21 days.
 - 2.5. The trustees, a committee of trustees or the executive, if they decide to refuse an application for affiliateship, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal.
 - 2.6. The trustees or a committee of trustees shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for affiliateship shall be final.
3. Continuity of affiliateship
 - 3.1. A station's affiliateship shall last for twelve months from the date set by the Executive Officers and end with the current period of affiliation.
 - 3.2. If an affiliate wishes to continue their affiliation to NaSTA, they will be expected to pay the affiliation fee by the beginning of the period of affiliation for the upcoming year.
4. Transfer of affiliateship
 - 4.1. Affiliateship of the CIO cannot be transferred to anyone else, except in the case of a station's name and/or identity change. This should still effectively be the same station.
5. Termination of affiliateship
 - 5.1. Affiliation will be terminated in the following situations:
 - 5.1.1. If the station does not pay the affiliation fee for the upcoming year and the period of affiliation for the previous year has ended.
 - 5.1.1.1. The period of affiliation will end precisely twelve months after the date set out by the trustees for that period.

- 5.1.2. If the station ceases to exist.
- 5.1.3. If the affiliate sends a notice of disassociation to the charity trustees.
- 5.1.4. Any sum of money owed by the affiliate to the CIO is not paid in full within six months.
- 5.1.5. The charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the CIO that the affiliate in question should be removed from affiliateship, and pass a resolution to that effect.
- 5.2. Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from affiliateship of the CIO they must:
 - 5.2.1. Inform the affiliate of the reasons why it is proposed to remove them from affiliateship;
 - 5.2.2. Give the affiliate at least 21 clear days notice in which to make representation to the charity trustees as to why they should not be removed from affiliateship;
 - 5.2.3. At a duly constituted meeting of the charity trustees, consider whether or not the affiliate should be removed from affiliateship;
 - 5.2.4. Consider at that meeting any representations which the affiliate makes as to why the affiliate should not be removed; and
 - 5.2.5. Allow the affiliate, or the affiliate's representative, to make those representations in person at the meeting, if the affiliate so chooses.
- 6. Duty and rights of affiliates and their members
 - 6.1. It is the duty of each affiliate of the CIO to exercise his or her powers as an affiliate of the CIO in the way they decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.
 - 6.2. Any affiliate has the right to attend the annual Conference and Awards Weekend based on limitations of availability of tickets.
 - 6.3. Any affiliate has the right to propose amendments to any of the association's governing documents.
 - 6.4. Any affiliate has the right to attend any General Meeting of the association in a voting capacity.
 - 6.5. Any member has the right to attend any General Meeting of the association in a non-voting capacity.
- 7. Obligation of affiliates
 - 7.1. By affiliating to the National Student Television Association, each station and its affiliates are obliged to act in accordance with the NaSTA rules and by-laws.
- 8. Affiliateship Fees
 - 8.1. The trustees shall decide on the value of the affiliation fees prior to the 31st October each year. The fee will be the same for all affiliate stations.
 - 8.2. The NaSTA executive will then set a date that all affiliation fees must be submitted by.

Clause 10 Affiliates' decisions

- 1. General provisions
 - 1.1. Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause 4 of this clause, decisions of the affiliates of the CIO may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause 2 of this clause or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause 3 of this clause.

2. Taking ordinary decisions by vote
 - 2.1. Subject to sub-clause 4 of this clause, any decision of the affiliates of the CIO may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including votes cast by postal or email ballot, and proxy votes).
3. Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting
 - 3.1. Subject to sub-clause 4 of this clause, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the affiliates who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:
 - 3.1.1. a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the affiliates eligible to vote; and
 - 3.1.2. a simple majority of affiliates has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying an affiliate's agreement must be authenticated by the signature of the Station Manager, Head of Station or a nominated person who may sign on behalf of the station or by a statement of their identity accompanying the document.
 - 3.2. The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more affiliates has signified their agreement.
 - 3.3. Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to affiliates who are affiliates of the CIO on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with sub-clause 1.1.
 - 3.4. Not less than 10% of the affiliates of the CIO may request the charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the affiliates.
 - 3.5. The charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if:
 - 3.5.1. The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material;
 - 3.5.2. The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the affiliates; and
 - 3.5.3. Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.
4. Decisions that must be taken in a particular way.
 - 4.1. Any decision to remove a trustee must be taken in accordance with clause 15 sub-clause 2.
 - 4.2. Any decision to amend this constitution must be taken in accordance with clause 30 of this constitution (Amendment of Constitution).
 - 4.3. Any decision to wind up or dissolve the CIO must be taken in accordance with clause 31 of this constitution (Voluntary winding up or dissolution). Any decision to amalgamate or transfer the undertaking of the CIO to one or more other CIOs must be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011.

Clause 11 General Meetings of affiliates

1. Types of general meeting

- 1.1. The Annual General Meeting (AGM) will be held either:
 - 1.1.1. At the Annual Conference and Awards weekend; or
 - 1.1.2. At a time and place decided by the charity trustees.
 - 1.2. AGMs must be held at intervals of no more than 15 months.
 - 1.3. Other general meetings of the CIO may be held at any time.
 - 1.4. All general meetings must be held in accordance with clause 11.
2. Calling general meetings
- 2.1. The charity trustees:
 - 2.1.1. Must call the annual general meeting of the affiliates of the CIO in accordance with sub-clause 1 of this clause, and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and
 - 2.1.2. May call any other general meeting of the affiliates at any time.
 - 2.2. The charity trustees must, within 21 days, call a general meeting of the affiliates of the CIO if:
 - 2.2.1. They receive a request to do so from at least 10% of the affiliates of the CIO or the Chair of the Executive Committee on their behalf; and
 - 2.2.2. The request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the affiliate(s) making the request.
 - 2.2.3. They receive a request from the NaSTA Executive which has been passed at a meeting of the executive by a majority vote.
 - 2.3. If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any general meeting of the affiliates of the CIO for more than 12 months, then sub-clause 2.2.1 of this clause shall have effect as if 5% were substituted for 10%.
 - 2.4. Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
 - 2.5. A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
 - 2.6. Any general meeting called by the charity trustees at the request of the affiliates of the CIO must be held within 28 days from the date on which it is called.
 - 2.7. If the charity trustees fail to comply with this obligation to call a general meeting at the request of its affiliates, then the affiliates who requested the meeting may themselves call a general meeting.
 - 2.8. A general meeting called in this way must be held not more than 3 months after the date when the affiliates first requested the meeting.
 - 2.9. The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the affiliates calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.
3. Notice of general meetings
- 3.1. The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant affiliates of the CIO, must give at least 14 clear days notice of any general meeting to all of the affiliates, and to any charity trustee of the CIO who is not an affiliate.
 - 3.2. The exception to this would be Emergency General Meetings, which can be called by the trustees or executive committee with a 24 hour clear notice, and only to discuss topics of urgency.

- 3.3. If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all affiliates of the CIO, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause 3.1 of this clause have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- 3.4. Any notice of any general meeting must:
 - 3.4.1. State the time and date of the meeting.
 - 3.4.2. Give the address at which the meeting is to take place. This can be the name of communication software, for example "Slack", but must also include any tags, passwords or other information that a user may need to access the call. A full set of instructions about the technicalities of joining should also accompany the announcement.
 - 3.4.3. Include the minutes of the previous General Meeting, so that it can be ratified at that meeting.
 - 3.4.4. Give particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting.
 - 3.4.5. If a proposal to alter the constitution of the CIO is to be considered at the meeting, include the text of the proposed alteration.
 - 3.4.6. Include, with the notice for the AGM, the annual statement of accounts, the trustees' annual report, the Executive Officers' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustee, or where allowed under clause [24] (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on the CIO's website, all minutes of all trustee and all executive officer meetings.
- 3.5. Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.
- 3.6. The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because an affiliate who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.
4. Chairing of general meetings
 - 4.1. The trustees shall ask the Returning Officer to chair all general meetings first and foremost.
 - 4.2. If the Returning Officer is unable to attend or unwilling to act, the trustees will appoint a member of the CIO who is a trustee of the CIO to chair the general meeting.
 - 4.3. If the trustees fail to appoint a chair by the start time of the meeting specified in the notice of the meeting, the affiliates of the CIO who are present at a general meeting shall elect a chair to preside at the meeting.
5. Quorum at general meetings
 - 5.1. No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the affiliates of the CIO unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts.
 - 5.2. Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be the greater of 40% or three affiliates. An organisation represented by a person present

- at the meeting in accordance with sub-clause 7 of this clause, is counted as being present in person.
- 5.3. If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the affiliates and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.
 - 5.4. If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the affiliates, the meeting must be adjourned.
 - 5.5. If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the affiliates, the meeting must be adjourned.
6. Voting at general meetings
 - 6.1. Any decision other than one falling within clause 10.4 (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy and postal votes). Every affiliate has one vote.
 - 6.2. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands (or in the case of a meeting on Slack or other online medium, by announcing your vote), unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or by at least 10% of the affiliates present in person or by proxy at the meeting.
 - 6.3. A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting, to remove the chair and instate, temporarily or for the duration of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matter shall be taken, and the result of the poll shall be announced, in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced, within 30 days of the demand for the poll.
 - 6.4. A poll may be taken:
 - 6.4.1. At the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - 6.4.2. At some other time and place specified by the chair; or
 - 6.4.3. Through the use of postal or electronic communications.
 - 6.5. In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
 - 6.6. Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.
 7. Adjourning of meetings
 - 7.1. The chair may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

Clause 12 Charity trustees

1. Functions and duties of charity trustees

- 1.1. The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. It is the duty of each charity trustee:
 - 1.1.1. to exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions as a trustee of the CIO in the way they decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO; and
 - 1.1.2. to exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:
 - 1.1.2.1. any special knowledge or experience that they has or holds himself or herself out as having; and
 - 1.1.2.2. if they acts as a charity trustee of the CIO in the course of a business or profession, to any special knowledge or experience that it is reasonable to expect of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.
2. Eligibility for trusteeship
 - 2.1. Every charity trustee must be a natural person.
 - 2.2. No one may be appointed as a charity trustee:
 - 2.2.1. If they are under the age of 18 years; or
 - 2.2.2. If they would automatically cease to hold office under the provisions of clause 15.1.6.
 - 2.3. No one is entitled to act as a charity trustee whether on appointment or on any re-appointment until they have expressly acknowledged, in whatever way the charity trustees decide, his or her acceptance of the office of charity trustee.
3. Number of charity trustees
 - 3.1. There must be at least two non-member charity trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.
 - 3.2. There must be at least one member charity trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.
 - 3.3. There is no maximum number of charity trustees that may be appointed to the CIO.
4. First charity trustees
 1. Name 1
 2. Name 2
 3. Name 3

Clause 13 Appointment of charity trustees

1. Elected charity trustees
 - 1.1. On 1st July in the year that the CIO is founded, all the elected charity trustees shall retire from office.
 - 1.2. On every subsequent 1st July of the affiliates of the CIO,
 - 1.2.1. one-third of the elected non-member charity trustees shall retire from office. If the number of elected charity trustees is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office, but if there is only one charity trustee, they shall retire.
 - 1.2.2. all the elected student charity trustees shall retire from office.

- 1.3. The charity trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment. If any trustees were last appointed or reappointed on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.
 - 1.4. The vacancies so arising may be filled by the decision of the affiliates at the annual general meeting; any vacancies not filled at the annual general meeting may be filled as provided in sub-clause 5 of this clause.
 - 1.5. The affiliates or the charity trustees may at any time decide to appoint a new charity trustee, whether in place of a charity trustee who has retired or been removed in accordance with clause 15 (Retirement and removal of charity trustees), or as an additional charity trustee, provided that the limit specified in clause 12.3 on the number of charity trustees would not as a result be exceeded.
 - 1.6. A person so appointed by the affiliates of the CIO shall retire in accordance with the provisions of sub-clauses 2 and 3 of this clause. A “poll” means a counted vote or ballot, usually (but not necessarily) in writing.

Clause 33 Appendix

1. Proxy Voting (Clause 11)
 - 1.1. By representation:
 - 1.1.1. Any affiliate of the CIO may appoint another person that is not a member of their television station as a proxy to exercise all or any of that affiliate’s rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the CIO. Proxies must be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:
 - 1.1.1.1. States the name of the affiliate appointing the proxy.
 - 1.1.1.2. Identifies the person appointed to be that affiliate’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed.
 - 1.1.1.3. States the relationship between the affiliate appointing the proxy and the proxy.
 - 1.1.1.4. Is signed by or on behalf of the affiliate appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the CIO may determine.
 - 1.1.1.5. Is delivered to the CIO in accordance with the constitution and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
 - 1.1.2. Proxy notices may (but do not have to) specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
 - 1.1.3. Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - 1.1.3.1. Allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting.
 - 1.1.3.2. Appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
 - 1.2. By registration:
 - 1.2.1. Any affiliate of the CIO may give their vote by written proxy prior to the start of the meeting which:
 - 1.2.1.1. States the name of the affiliate appointing the proxy.
 - 1.2.1.2. Clearly states the vote. Either for, against or abstain.
 - 1.2.1.3. Is signed by or on behalf of the affiliate writing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the CIO may determine.
 - 1.2.1.4. Is delivered to the CIO in accordance with the constitution and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

- 1.3. The CIO may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
 - 1.4. An affiliate who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the CIO by or on behalf of that affiliate.
 - 1.5. An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the CIO a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the affiliate by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
 - 1.6. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
 - 1.7. If a proxy notice is not signed or authenticated by the affiliate appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person who signed or authenticated it on that affiliate's behalf had authority to do so.
2. Use of electronic communications (Clause 24).
- 2.1. Any affiliate or charity trustee of the CIO may communicate electronically with the CIO to an address specified by the CIO for the purpose, so long as the communication is authenticated in a manner which is satisfactory to the CIO.
 - 2.2. Communication by the CIO.
 - 2.2.1. Any affiliate or charity trustee of the CIO, by providing the CIO with his or her email address or similar, is taken to have agreed to receive communications from the CIO in electronic form at that address, unless the affiliate has indicated to the CIO his or her unwillingness to receive such communications in that form.
 - 2.2.2. The charity trustees may, subject to compliance with any legal requirements, by means of publication on its website:
 - 2.2.2.1. provide the affiliates with the notice referred to in clause 11.3 (Notice of general meetings).
 - 2.2.2.2. Give charity trustees notice of their meetings in accordance with clause 19.1 (Calling meetings).
 - 2.2.2.3. Submit any proposal to the affiliates or charity trustees for decision by written resolution in accordance with the CIO's powers under clause 10 (affiliates' decisions), 10.3 (Decisions taken by resolution in writing).
 - 2.2.3. The charity trustees must:
 - 2.2.3.1. Take reasonable steps to ensure that affiliates and charity trustees are promptly notified of the publication of any such notice or proposal.
 - 2.2.3.2. Send any such notice or proposal in hard copy form to any affiliate or charity trustee who has not consented to receive communications in electronic form.
